Select Messages from Tama's Talks

“If you’re this successful doing work you don’t love, what could you do with work you do love?” I decided to answer that question with my life. I left the practice of law to undergo the art, practice, and baptism of listening to myself in this lifetime.

There aren’t many voices in the world that will encourage you to follow your inner rock star or anointed one and get out there on the window ledge of ordinary life, mock gravity, and fly. Yet some of us are just called to fly.

You were born to stretch your wings. Don’t douse this hunger with rationalization or distraction. Yet don’t make your current life wrong. The life before you is instructing your promise and flight.

Your desires are not frivolous. Your desires are doorways. You were born to live a brilliant life. It’s time to step beyond the hypnotism of what you think you can or cannot do.

It’s never a step down to step ahead. Sometimes, we give up “security” or “appearances” so that we can know the reality of excitement, freedom, and a security that can’t be shaken. It doesn’t matter what your life looks like. It matters what it feels like.

When you’re inspired, you’re unstoppable!
